SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

This course of studies is designed to furnish a suitable education to those who are fitting themselves for business men, for engineers, or to engage in mercantile or mechanical pursuits. Those sciences which are adapted to fit them for their chosen pursuits, will, in their case, take the place of the ancient classics. It may be expected, therefore, that upon such as complete this course of studies, the honors of the College will be bestowed, and the degree of Bachelor of Sciences conferred.

AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

THE Trustees have resolved to establish an Agricultural Department, in which the best facilities for obtaining a knowledge of the science of Agriculture shall be afforded, consisting of lectures, experiments, and general instruction in those sciences which have a more direct relation to this important branch of industry; embracing a period of fifteen weeks, during the second term of each year.

Instruction in this department will, therefore, commence about the first of December, in each year, and close about the middle of March. It will afford the sons of farmers, and others, an opportunity to spend the winter months in listening to lectures from scientific professors and practical agriculturists, who will be employed to give instruction in Agricultural Chemistry, embracing the nature of the soil in this State, and its adaptation to the different productions of this latitude, and the best means by which the different kinds of soil may be enriched; in Practical Mechanics, embracing the structure of buildings, fences, and farming tools, with reference to durability, utility and economy; in Geology, embracing the mineral resources of the State; in Agricultural Jurisprudence, embracing the laws relating to deeds of conveyance, trade, and agricultural pursuits; in Animal and Vegetable Physiology, embracing the kind of animals adapted to the climate, the best methods of rearing them, the diseases to which they are subject, their comparative expense and the means of their improvement, and the culture of the different kinds of grain and fruits. In addition, the students in this department will be allowed to recite in those classes in the other departments for which they are fitted.

This department will be fully organized at the earliest period practicable.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

THIS department furnishes peculiar facilities for a thorough elementary English education, and embraces such studies, including the elements of the Latin and Greek languages, as are necessary for admission in full into the classical course of the College Department. Peculiar attention is paid to the pronunciation, etymology, and the syntax of these languages. The object is not to hurry pupils from one author to another, but to make them perfectly familiar, before entering college, with all the elementary principles, and thus, at an early period in their literary course, forming a taste, a relish for these languages.

Instruction is given in this department in all the branches of the following

COURSE OF STUDIES.

FIRST YEAR.

FIRST TERM....Andrews' and Stoddard's Latin Grammar.
Andrews' Latin Reader.
Mitchell's Geography.

SECOND TERM..Latin Reader.
Sophocles' Greek Grammar and Greek Lessons.
Arithmetic.

THIRD TERM...Cæsar's Commentaries.
Greek Lessons.
English Grammar.

SECOND YEAR.

FIRST TERM....Cicero's Orations.
Felton's Greek Reader.
Book Keeping, single entry.

SECOND TERM..Cicero's Orations.
Greek Reader.
General History.

THIRD TERM...Virgil.
Greek Reader.
Analysis of English Language, . . . Greene.

Students who attend the University temporarily, can recite in any of the classes of the foregoing courses of study, for which they are prepared, and in which they can maintain an honorable standing.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class of the Classical Course, must be able to sustain an examination in English Grammar, Geography, Arithmetic, Algebra through simple equations, Andrews' and Stoddard's Latin Grammar, Andrews' Latin Reader, three books of Cæsar's Commentaries, Cicero's Orations, Sophocles' Greek Grammar and Greek Lessons, and Felton's Greek Reader, through the Cyropædia. Much will depend on the thoroughness with which preparations are made.

For admission to the Scientific Course, students will be examined in all the English branches of our preparatory course of studies.

The Preparatory Department is open for the reception of any student of good moral character, who is of suitable age to be removed from the restraints of domestic life, and possesses the ordinary capacities for the acquisition of knowledge.

All applicants for admission must present testimonials of good moral character; and students coming from other Colleges, a certificate of honorable dismissal.

LOCATION AND BUILDINGS.

This University is located in Granville, Licking County, Ohio, three miles north of Union Station, on the Central Ohio Railroad, six miles west of Newark, and twenty-eight miles east of the city of Columbus; in an uncommonly healthy locality, and in a community distinguished for intelligence and morality.

The Buildings consist of one brick Edifice, one hundred and thirty-three feet long, and four stories high, erected at an expense of about $18,000; and one frame building three stories high, and sixty-eight feet long, for the Preparatory Department. These buildings furnish the very best accommodations to students; and being situated on a beautiful elevation in the immediate vicinity of town, and commanding an extensive view of the surrounding country, they offer a delightful retreat to the student.

ENDOWMENT.

The present resources of the University consist of about $100,000. But to carry out the plans adopted by the Board of Trustees, and erect additional buildings, a much larger Endowment will be required. To the acquisition of such an Endowment the Board will devote their energies; and the coöperation of the public is earnestly solicited.

LIBRARY.

The University Library, to which all the students have access, is about to be enlarged by valuable additions. It now, combined with the Libraries of the Literary Societies, comprises about 5000 volumes

MINERALOGICAL CABINET.

A large and valuable Cabinet of minerals has been procured at great labor and expense. The Cabinet of Prof. Carter having been added to the stock of minerals formerly owned by the College, renders it a valuable collection of minerals and fossils.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

The Calliopean and Franklin Societies have meetings weekly, in their own halls, for exercises in essays, criticisms, orations and debates. They each hold one public exhibition during the year. They have, distinct from the University, very valuable libraries, embracing many of our most choice literary, historical and philosophical works; and valuable cabinets of minerals and curiosities.

DISCIPLINE.

The officers have their rooms in the college edifices, and, during hours appropriated to study, maintain quietness and good order in the halls and over the premises. They also keep a register, showing the absence of each student from all exercises upon which his attendance is required: also his degree of excellence or deficiency in each performance, and his general deportment. This, if requested, is, at the close of the term, transmitted to parents or guardians, and is open at all times to their inspection.

The laws enacted by the Trustees for regulating the internal affairs of the Institution, will, at all times, be enforced by the Faculty with firmness and impartiality. When kindness, and an appeal to honorable principles, or private admonition, will secure the end aimed at in these regulations, they will always be preferred and employed; but when these fail to influence any young man faithfully to improve his time and opportunities, his friends will be informed of his delinquencies, that he may be removed from the Institution, if possible, without public censure.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Prayers, with the reading of the Scriptures, are offered in the college chapel, every morning, at which all the students are required to be present.

Every student is required to attend public worship on the forenoon and afternoon of each Lord's day.

Every student, on entering the Institution, is furnished with a copy of the laws; and no excuse is received for ignorance of its contents.

The payment of term bills is invariably required in advance.

Students will find it for their interest, as well as comfort, to bring with them what furniture they may need in their rooms, such as sheets, towels, bed spreads, etc., as they sometimes find it inconvenient and expensive to furnish themselves with these articles after their arrival. Bedsteads are furnished by the college.

Indigent, pious young men, of suitable character, who have the ministry in view, are admitted as beneficiaries of the Ohio Baptist Education Society, by which society they are furnished with free tuition and from $50 to $75 per annum.

DIVISION OF TERMS AND EXPENSES.

The academic year is divided into three terms. The first term consists of twelve weeks; and the second and third terms consist of fourteen weeks each.

The tuition in the college department is eight dollars for the first term, and ten dollars each for the second and third terms. The tuition in the agricultural department is ten dollars. The tuition in the preparatory department is six dollars for the first term, and seven dollars and fifty cents each for the second and third terms. The charges for incidental expenses are seventy-five cents for the first term, and one dollar each for the second and third terms.

Room rent in the Central Edifice is at the rate of ten dollars per annum, and in the Western Edifice at the rate of six dollars per annum. Good board is obtained in respectable families at from $1,50 to $1,75 per week. By associating in clubs, students obtain board in families at from one dollar to one dollar and twenty-five cents per week.
